--00o--

The attention of the Commissioner of Collegiate Education, A.P., Hyderabad is invited to the references cited. It is informed that in the Circular Memo 2nd cited, the Government have already issued clarifications with regard to age of superannuation of Govt.employees. In respect of the employees of the Aided Education Institutions the following clarification is issued:

"The age of superannuation of the teaching and non-teaching employees are governed by Section 78-A of the A.P. Education Act, 1982. As amended by the Act 17 of 1993, the teaching and non-teaching staff not belonging to the last grade service shall retire on the afternoon of the last day of the month in which he attains the age of (58) years, whereas the members belonging to last grade service shall retire on the afternoon of the last day of the month in which he attains the age of (60) years. The A.P.Public Employment (Regulation of Age of Superannuation) (Amendment) Act, 2014 did not amend any provisions of the A.P.Education Act, 1982. Hence, the Education Department may examine the issue as per the provisions of the A.P.Education Act, 1982 and take necessary further action in the matter duly following the procedure laid down in the A.P. Government Business Rules".

2. The Commissioner of Collegiate Education, A.P., Hyderabad is, therefore, informed that as per Act 4 of 2014, the Private Aided Degree / Oriental College staff are not eligible for the benefit of superannuation at (60) years.

3. However, she may examine the issue as per the provisions of the A.P.Education Act, 1982 for enhancement of age of superannuation from (58) years to (60) years for the staff working in Private Aided Degree College, Oriental Colleges in the State of Andhra Pradesh based on need and demand and furnish proposals, accordingly.
